Dublin, June 8.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, do, with all due Thankfulneſs to God, moſt heartily Congratulate your Majeſty upon that glorious Succeſs with which your Councils and Arms have been of late ſo ſignally bleſſed.

The Aſſurance we have that by this Means an End is put to that moſt wicked and unnatural Rebellion, which in ſome Parts of Great Britain diſturbed the Quiet of your Majeſty's Reign, fills us with unſpeakable Joy, and encourages us to believe, that the Peace and Quiet which we of this Kingdom have had, and hope long to enjoy, under your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Government, will be happily ſecured to us.

And as we are perſwaded that the firm unſhaken Loyalty of your Proteſtant Subjects in this Kingdom (whoſe ſteady Zeal for your Royal Perſon and Family conſtantly appeared) was, through God's Bleſſing, an effectual Means of preventing all thoſe Attempts of diſturbing our publick Peace that might be feared from the great Numbers of Papiſts that live among us; ſo we faithfully promiſe for our ſelves, to give the utmoſt Diſcouragement and Oppoſition for the future to the wicked Deſigns of thoſe that ſhall ſhew any Diſaffection toward your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government, or to the Succeſſion in your Royal Houſe, and are fully convinced the ſame will be done by the reſt of your Majeſty's Proteſtant Subjects of this Kingdom.

We ſhall never be wanting in our earneſt Supplications to Almighty God, that his wonderful Providence which conducted your Majeſty peaceably to the Throne of your Royal Anceſtors, and has hitherto preſerv'd you as it, may ſtill watch over you for Good. May thoſe amiable Virtues in your Majeſty which adorn your Crown, attract the Hearts of all your Subjects, and powerfully engage them unanimouſly to join their beſt Endeavours in promoting (what we are ſure your Majeſty will eſteem the glory of your Reign) the firm Eſtabliſhment of Peace and Happineſs, Truth and Juſtice, Religion and Piety: That ſo after a long and happy Reign over us, you may be able to tranſmit to your Royal Heirs, together with your own Virtues, the peaceable Government of a truly good and loyal People.

On the 4th Inſtant the Houſe of Commons, with their Speaker, attended their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices with the following Addreſs.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of Ireland in Parliament aſſembled, with Hearts full of the ſincereſt Joy and Satisfaction, beg Leave to Congratulate your moſt ſacred Majeſty on the happy Succeſs wherewith it has pleaſed Almighty God to crown your Councils and Arms in extinguiſhing the late horrid and unnatural Rebellion, rais'd and carry'd on in Great Britain by Papiſts and perjured Traytors, to deprive us of the meſtimable Bleſſings of your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign, and place on the Throne of theſe Kingdoms a Pretender bred up in Romiſh Superſtition and Arbitrary Principles.

So wicked an Enterprize, aggravated by the blackeſt Crimes of Perjury and Ingratitude could never proſper, but has contributed to your Majeſty's Glory, by rendring your Juſtice and unparallel'd Mercy equally conſpicuous.

Amazed at the Steadineſs and Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils, the Pretender ſought his Safety by Flight, wanting Courage to ſtand the Shock of your victorious Arms: With what Hopes then of Succeſs can his wicked Adherents flatter themſelves againſt a Prince, who by a moſt wiſe, juſt and merciful Adminiſtration, has not only gained the Hearts and Affections of his People; but amidſt the Difficulties of an inteſtine Rebellion, preſerv'd a Name ſo powerful Abroad, as to be courted by the greateſt Princes for his Friendſhip, and have his Mediation ſought by the remoteſt States?

Your loyal Commons are, in a more particular Manner, obliged to offer their unfeigned Thanks to your Majeſty, to whom (under God) we owe the Peace and entire Tranquility wherewith this your Kingdom hath been bleſſed.

And we humbly aſſure your Majeſty, that as your faithful Commons were, with the greateſt Chearfulneſs and Unanimity, determin'd to hazard their Lives in Defence of your undoubted Title to the Imperial Crown of theſe Realms: And (notwithſtanding the Poverty of this Kingdom) entruſted your wiſe and excellent Government with an unprecedented and unlimited Vote of Credit; ſo it ſhall be always our Ambition, as it is our Duty and Intereſt, to approve our ſelves the moſt loyal Subjects to the beſt of Princes.

Their Excellencies were pleaſed to return the Anſwer following.

Mr. Speaker,

WE ſhall take Care to have this Addreſs laid before His Majeſty by the firſt Opportunity, wherein His Loyal Commons continue to expreſs the ſame Zeal and Affection for His Majeſty's Perſon and Government, which has ſo eminently appeared on every Occaſion.

To

To their Excellencies the Lords Justices General, and General Governors of Ireland.

The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens and Burgesses in Parliament assembled.

May it please Your Excellencies,

WE his Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons in Parliament assembled, being truly sensible of the many Advantages we have received from your Excellencies just and prudent Administration, beg Leave to return our most humble and hearty Thanks for the same; as likewise for the several good Laws obtained for this Kingdom by your Excellencies Interposition.

We cannot sufficiently acknowledge the early Care your Excellencies took, and the wise Dispositions you made for the Defence of this Kingdom in the late Time of Danger; nor shall we be ever unmindful of the just Regard your Excellencies have had to the several Applications made to you by the faithful Commons, whereof we have lately had an eminent Instance in the Promotion of our Chaplain to a Bishoprick by your Excellencies Recommendation to His Majesty, which we doubt not will prove a seasonable Encouragement to the Clergy to exert their Zeal for the Protestant Interest, and His Majesty's Service; but we are more particularly indebted to your Excellencies Justice and Frugality, for having employed so many Half-pay Officers in the new Levies, to ease the Charge of the Establishment.
